Our Instructors

Kristi Anderson - Learned to knit as a Girl Scout Leader and hasn't ever stopped. One of our most prolific knitters, she is always creating new, wonderful pieces.

Roxana Bartlett - Is both an artist-quiltmaker and a knitwear designer. Leading a double life isn't as difficult as it sounds, she says, since both reflect an aspect of her creativity and both are exciting. Her book SLIP STITCH KNITTING is an Interweave Press best seller.

Betsy Blumenthal - Received her MFA at Indiana University, owned a shop (Yarns Unlimited) and taught at Indiana University in the Fine Arts Department. She has taught all over the U.S. including Convergence. Besides her articles and work in Handwoven and Weaver's magazines, she co-authored HANDS ON DYEING.

Ann Budd - Is the author of THE KNITTER'S HANDY BOOK OF PATTERNS, THE KNITTER'S HANDY BOOK OF SWEATER PATTERNS and co-author of WRAP STYLE, LACE STYLE and BAG STYLE. When she isn't writing about knitting, she is knitting.

Maggie Casey - Is the author of START SPINNING—EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO MAKE GREAT YARN, published by Interweave Press. A spinner since 1973 she holds the Handweavers Guild of America Certificate of Excellence in Handspinning. Look for her workshops at Estes Park and SOAR. Articles she has written have been published in Spin-off and Shuttle, Spindle & Dyepot. Her love of fibers and delight in spinning are contagious. Her DVD Start Spinning came out this spring.

Sharon Dalebout - Was born with knitting needles in her fingers. Sharon is an accomplished quilter, embroiderer and knitter. Sharing her knowledge is one of her greatest pleasures. Look for her work in Handwoven and Interweave Knits.

Debi Dodge - Was the Superintendent of the Handspun Yarn Show at the Boulder County Fair for 10 years. She has been the judge at the Estes Park Wool Festival and is a 3 time Medallion winner for her designer yarns at the Taos Wool Festival.

Sally Kuhn - Worked for yarn during high school and college, helping with knitting, crochet and needlepoint projects. An avid weaver since 1994, you can see her woven triple weave pick-up cougar in the main office of Smiley Middle School in Denver. Kumihimo and ply split braiding are also addictions.

Heide Murray - Has been needlefelting for eight years, teaching for three, and finds wool endlessly fascinating. Making whimsical characters has been a wonderful experience, leading to pieces in galleries in New York and Tokyo, even being a finalist in the Softie Awards in two categories in 2007. After years of sculpting dolls in clay and taking courses all over the states, she found wool and will never go back.

Jane Patrick - As a past editor of Handwoven magazine and with her involvement with Schacht Spindle Company, Jane is very knowledgeable about many areas of weaving. Teaching rigid heddle is one of her many loves. Her book TIME TO WEAVE is a must read.

Judy Steinkoenig - Has been teaching weaving classes since 1983 including Beginning Weaving at Convergence 2004. You can see her weavings in Handwoven magazine. This, plus being a knowledgeable and lively speaker, keeps her in much demand up and down the Front Range.

Chris Switzer - Is the author and publisher of SPINNING LLAMA AND ALPACA and editor of PROJECTS FOR LLAMA AND ALPACA. She began weaving and spinning in 1971 and has been a member of the Handweavers Guild of Boulder and the Northern Colorado Weavers Guild ever since. She received a BFA in Weaving from CSU in 1984. She raises alpacas and paco-vicunas in Estes Park.

Margaret Tullis - Learned to tat and crochet as a child from a sitter who found she could keep her quiet with a shuttle or hook and a ball of string. Later, and by then a weaver and spinner, she couldn't resist basketry when the material fell from her Florida trees. She has produced baskets and craft for mail-order as well as installations and galleries. She loves to learn and she loves to share.

Margaret Wahlin - Learned to knit and crochet at an extremely young age from her mother in Scotland. Knitting has always been an integral part of her life and the more complicated the patterns are, the better. Margaret has become certified as a Knitting Instructor by the Craft Yarn Council of America. She is also an avid weaver and spinner.
